CIVIC ENGAGEMENT OPPORTUNITIES AT GEORGIA TECH

Civic Engagement is a part of the Center for Student Engagement. Their mission is to encourage students to become responsible global citizens dedicated to building intricate, multilayered communities. There are many community service student organizations and resources on campus to get involved with.

- 1. Mobilizing Opportunities for Volunteer Experiences (MOVE): Is an organization of Tech students committed to community engagement across 6 committees – Animal Welfare, Education and STEM, Hunger and Homelessness, Medical Assistance, Sustainability, and Special Projects. Go to their page on Engage to learn more.

- 2. Office of Sustainability Organizations:

There are numerous organizations on campus promoting sustainability through education, projects, and campus initiatives, such as Energy Club, Engineers Without Borders, and Students Organizing for Sustainability. Head to sustain.gatech.edu/student-organizations/ for more information.

Students Organizing for Sustainability

- 3. Jumpstart: Is an early educational organization consisting of community volunteers and college students who work with preschool children in low-income neighborhoods. GT students receive training and make a lasting impact in the lives of young children. Visit their GT site to learn more:
